Following are new grounds of rejection. While the reference was withdrawn in a prior action, example 8 was not cited but is now relied on for the following rejection.

a. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 13, 17-19, 21-26 and 30-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moore US 4,944,939. See example 8. For claims 13, 30 and 31 the reference Abstract clearly disclosed a method for treating pseudofolliculitis barbae. Example 8 describes a method wherein a preparation consisting of hydrocortisone and mineral oil may be applied prior to shaving. No other ingredients are required. See column 6, lines 15-22 and 62-65. Applicants' recitation of a preparation or a shaving cream as in claim 23 does not constitute what the examiner considers a patentable distinction.

3. For claims 17-19 and 24-26, 33 and 34, see column 2, lines 43-54.

4. For claim 21 the glucocorticoid may be applied after shaving also. See column 7, lines 5-7.

5. For claim 22 applying in between shaves encompasses the Moore step of applying after shaving. See column 6, lines 59-61. Applying 8-12 hours prior to shaving is also the same as in between shaves for someone who shaves daily.

For claims 23 and 32 the recitation of a cream does not distinguish the composition. Note column 6, lines 23-30 recites additives such as triethanolamine, stearic acid etc. that can be added to the hydrocortisone mineral oil mixture. Example 8 shows a composition consisting essentially of a therapeutic amount of glucocorticoid.

6. Claim 20 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 27-29 are allowed.

Claims 13, 17-19, 21-26, and 30-34 are rejected.

Claims 1-12, and 14-16 are canceled.
